Dear Families,

The rain finally arrived this week and the temperature has certainly dropped, but the pace remains as busy as ever at Nine Acres!

This week, our Year 2 pupils enjoyed a wonderful visit to Wildheart Animal Sanctuary, supporting their learning through a memorable hands-on experience. We also welcomed many prospective families to our first-ever Open Evening. It was fantastic to showcase all that makes Nine Acres such a special place. If you know anyone who was unable to attend, please reassure them that additional tours will be available after half term.

Today, we were delighted to welcome the renowned author Maz Evans and illustrator Neal Layton to Nine Acres. What an incredible opportunity for our children to meet and hear from two highly celebrated figures in children's literature.

We have also enjoyed a wonderful celebration of the cultures, backgrounds and community that make Nine Acres such a special place during our Cultural Day. It has been fantastic to see children sharing their heritage with pride and learning about the experiences and traditions of others. The sense of belonging, respect and community that shone throughout the day was a fitting reflection of the values we hold dear at Nine Acres.

We look forward to the final week of this busy half term - have a wonderful weekend,
Miss McDonald
